

FRANKFURT “ASA NO KAI”

JAPANESE-GERMAN BUSINESS BREAKFAST

Venue: Grandhotel Hessischer Hof, “Empire Salon“, Friedrich-Ebert-Anlage 40, 60325 Frankfurt/Main

Time: June 8, 2018 (Friday), 8:00–10:00 a.m.

The Japanese-German Business Association (DJW) invites you to share ideas, contacts and information on business-related topics while enjoying breakfast at our “Asa no Kai” in Frankfurt. Our guests will be welcomed by Consul General Setsuko Kawahara. The event will be held in English.

Topic: “Countering the Threat of a Cyber-Attack – Handling Crisis Communication in the Light of the new Data Protection Regulations”

Cyber-security is currently one of the most discussed topics within German and Japanese companies. The damage caused by cyber-crime already amounts up to one trillion dollars. Politicians have responded to this threat: As of May 25, 2018, companies within the EU will be obliged by law (GDPR) to report an attack to the relevant authorities. This measure increases the pressure on companies to adjust according structures and procedures.

The DJW event will outline the new regulations, simulate a cyber-attack and offer insights how to prepare for and deal with it. Our speakers will present an interactive simulation of a major reputational crisis striking a large Japanese corporation operating in Germany. Participants will experience how to deal with such a situation via a digital, fully interactive, real-time crisis simulation tool and learn how to respond to traditional and social media, customers and other stakeholders.

Speaker: Dr. Jochen Legewie, Managing Director, CNC Japan and CNC Chairman Asia

Jochen Legewie studied at Hitotsubashi University and Cologne University, where he obtained his Ph.D. in Economics. Spending 25 years in Japan, he is one of the few foreign trustees of the business federation Keizai Dooyukai.
